

The Communicator

for STUDENTS of

The Ohio State University at Lima and Lima Technical College

"POLAND" IS SPEAKER'S SUBJECT

Take an armchair tour of POLAND with Dr. Mary Ann Sullivan, professor of English and art history at Bluffton College, on Thursday, May 12, at noon, in Reed Hall Room 160. With slides that she took, Dr. Sullivan will highlight the art and architecture of such ancient cities as Warsaw and Krakow. She will present a personal portrait of the country and its people. A question and answer period will follow the presentation. Don't miss this Noon Series opportunity for an inside look at POLAND today.

CAMPUS PROFESSORS AWARDED NATIONAL ENDOWMENT GRANTS

Will Wells, Chairman of the Department of General Studies at Lima Technical College, has been awarded a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities to study in Tirolo, Italy, for 6 weeks this summer. Wells will attend an NEH sponsored conference on, "Ezra Pound and His Italian Contemporaries", along with 14 other American scholars. The conference is being hosted by Pound's daughter, the Countess Mary De Rachewiltz at her castle, Schloss Brunnenberg, in the Italian Alps. Wells area of interest lies with the American poet's Italian contemporaries, Salvatore Quasimodo, Giuseppe Ungari, and Umberto Saba. Wells plans to publish his research at a future date.

Ohio State University - Lima Assistant Professor of English, James Degan, will spend 7 weeks this summer at Louisiana State University on a National Endowment for the Humanities Grant. Degan will attend an NEH conference on "Memory Narrative and Life Writing". The 12 scholars attending the conference will work with James Olney, of LSU, a well known expert in this field. Degan plans to use his findings in classroom work and in future publications.

FIRST LTC COLLEGE TRANSFER DAY

On Thursday, May 12, the LTC Career Placement Office will host the first LTC COLLEGE TRANSFER DAY. Thirteen area and regional colleges and universities will be on campus from 11:00 am. - 1:30 pm. to speak with LTC students about completing a Bachelor's degree. All majors will be represented. For more information, see Darlene Brown, PS. 148.

STUDENT ART SHOW ENTRIES DUE

Calling ALL OSU - Lima and Lima Tech students who have taken any art or art education courses during their academic careers! Be sure to enter the FIFTH ANNUAL STUDENT ART SHOW. Bring your original art work, that has not been entered in previous shows, to Room 160, Reed Hall, on Thursday, May 12, between 2-4 pm. for entry in this years exhibit. Cash awards will be made to winning entries and a special Purchase Award will enable that piece of work chosen to be purchased for the OSU - Lima permanent art collection. Professor Jaye Bumbaugh, Bluffton College, will judge the entries. A reception and awards ceremony will open the show on Sunday, May 15, from 2-4 pm. For more information, see any member of the OSU Art Department in Galvin Room 133.

IMPORTANT NOTES

MATHEMATICS WEEK WINNERS

Congratulations to the winners of the MATHEMATICS AWARENESS WEEK contest. First place: Kevin Rettig and Penny Kentosh; Second Place: Matt Gordon and Amy Alexander; Third Place - Joseph Ellerbrock; and Fourth Place - Kia Rasekhy and John Campbell. Great Going Everyone!

IS A CRUISE IN YOUR FUTURE? - There might be, if you purchase a ticket on a COZUMEL CRUISIN' drawing to be held all week long during AIDS AWARENESS WEEK, May 9-15. The trip will take you to the romantic Caribbean island of Cozumel for 5 days and 4 nights, airfare to Miami included. The drawing is a community service project of the LTC Human Services Club, Friends of the Community. Tickets are only $5.00 or 3 for $10.00. Get your ticket from any club member or Matt Kinkley.

COMEDY OPENS AT ENCORE THEATER -

Encore Theater closes its season with a comedy about an English professor who has approached the family of one of his students about financing his play. You won't want to miss "BREAKING LEGS" now playing through May 21. Student tickets are $5.00 and are available at the Box Office or by calling 223-8866. Take a weekend break and see this funny, relaxing comedy.

COMPUTER SHOW HERE THIS WEEKEND -

Computer buffs from all over the United States who use the Texas Instruments TI99/4A computer will gather this weekend, Saturday May 14, on the OSU/LTC campus for a FREE computer show. Fifteen hours of seminars are scheduled and there will be lots of hardware and software demonstrations. For more information contact Dr. Charles Good in GA 460-E or at 221-1641, Ext. 205.

Athletics:

SPRING TEAMS DELAYED BY RAIN

The rainy weekend of April 30 and May 1 left the baseball and golf conference finals incomplete. The golf team could not compete at all, and the baseball team played the first round of competition, but could not finish the tournament. Because of the weather delay, the golf team's scores from state competition this past weekend will count double (for both conference and state tournaments). The baseball team headed to Lancaster on Friday rather than Saturday to complete the conference tournament prior to state competition. The tennis team travelled to Hamilton for their State tourney this past weekend on May 7 & 8.

ONU WINS MAY WEEK BASEBALL GAME-

Last Tuesday's baseball game for the May Week cookout featured great plays by the Barons during early innings, but ended with a 10-5 loss.

THANKS TO BASKETBALL PLAYERS-

Four courageous basketball players and Rob Livchak took on the Toledo Silver Streaks wheelchair team last Wednesday. The Barons won the 10 minute game 36-24 (after being spotted 30pts.)

Intramurals:

MAY WEEK IS A MEMORY-

Now that May Week has ended, the intramural volleyball will continue on Tuesdays between 12-2pm in the Cook Gym. Everyone is welcome to stop by for informal play. Wednesday is 3-on-3 Basketball day in the gym. Hours for open basketball play are also 12-2pm.

WHIFFLEBALL AN OPTION THIS WEEK-

Ask a gym attendant (12-2pm daily) about the upcoming whiffleball tournament.
